To our Patrons and Friends:—

We take this opportunity of expressing to you our sincere thanks and appreciation of your business and for your personal favors which have been extended us during the year 1905 which is now fast drawing to a close.

It has been our aim at all times to conduct our business along such lines that your interest and business welfare would always be guarded. The past year has been one of our most successful years in business, and the constant increase in the various departments of our business is an evidence that our efforts and business methods of conducting our business have been appreciated, and we feel congratulated. Our success is due to the fact that we have been the recipient of your business and hearty co-operation.

We trust that we may be favored with a continuance of your patronage—and to those who have not had the pleasure of doing business for in the past, we hope that you will become one among our many satisfied patrons. We take pleasure in extending our patrons at all times every possible favor and consideration consistent with safe business methods, and we feel that it will be to your advantage to place your business with us.

Again thanking you, and wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, we beg to remain,

Most Respectfully,
